An overwhelming desire to create an environment that would stimulate and inspire their students is what drove Mario Rinvolucri and James Dixey to open Pilgrims in 1974.

Concerned by the fact that teachers in traditional schools focused more on the course books and a method, they identified that a more immediate result could be achieved by putting the learner at the centre of the learning process.

Their ethos – Pilgrims does not teach a language but teaches people.

This pedagogic philosophy is now celebrated throughout the world as the ‘Humanistic Approach’; it inspires thousands of children & teenagers, business professionals and teachers. Indeed Pilgrims has published over 50 teachers’ resource books on the subject and continues to guide teachers worldwide through the Pilgrims pioneering online magazine ‘Humanising Language Teaching’.

People come to Pilgrims not just to focus on their English, but to focus on their relationship with their English: this transformation at a deep personal level empowers them to take responsibility for how they learn and how they can communicate powerfully in the global language.

The Spirit of Pilgrims

We specialise in the personal development of each and every one of our students. From the meet and greet service at the airport, during the course experience, to the emotional goodbye, we unlock the unrecognised potential that we know exists in all of our students. The essence of every Pilgrims course is to get the student to where they want to be through a carefully scheduled and highly imaginative programme delivered by inspirational leaders.

Our carefully managed mix of nationalities ensures a rich variety of cultural backgrounds on the course, where all are allowed to blossom.

Students leave Pilgrims with so much positivity and passion for activities, for new friendships with teachers and students that they are transformed as people with greater confidence in themselves and in manoeuvring the global society that they have become a part of.

The Pilgrims Philosophy

We believe that successful language learning is based on a strong relationship between the teacher and the student. Our teachers are very passionate about Pilgrims. Their passion motivates the students and their main focus is to ensure that lessons offer stimulating and relevant materials to the learners. Pilgrims creates an inspiring course for students to be excited about; in progressing, achieving and excelling.

From the moment all of the students arrive at the airport the teachers are challenging and encouraging all to succeed. They sense a very special, safe environment where teachers know their names and make them feel like they belong.

The Pilgrims schools are decorated with a clear purpose to inspire excitement and curiosity over how the course will unfold. Under the guise of a motivating theme the student enters a challenging and rewarding environment.

We go beyond the traditional teaching and learning classroom to create a family of inspired learners. We wake them in the morning, guide them through the learning in class, challenge them in team activities and even unwind with a cup of cocoa before bed.

The most powerful feature of a Pilgrims course is the passion, pride and commitment of all the teachers who live and breathe Pilgrims.

Pastoral Care

The safety and well-being of our students is our top priority at Pilgrims. From the moment we welcome them at the airport we make sure all pupils feel recognised and supported.

All of our teachers live in residence with the students and are attentive to their well-being 24 hours a day. The safe and family environment is enhanced by the wake up call in the morning, the meals taken together and the involvement of all in team games. The ratio of no more than 4 pupils to every member of Pilgrims staff allows us to recognise and respond to each student's specific needs and interests.

International Mix

Pilgrims attracts students from all over the world, representing over 16 nationalities. This rich variety creates a truly international community where all flourish through this exposure to different cultures and backgrounds.

At Pilgrims we bring these different cultures together through the use of English and we learn from each other's strengths and insights. To be open to the world and celebrate all its different cultures is a highly valuable skill to have.

Each and every one of our students will be speaking English in the class, the activities, and during meal times. Students are fully immersed in the language and culture, giving all a well-rounded learning experience.

A Love of English

Pilgrims Language Courses promote English from 'Breakfast to Bedtime'. The students are immersed in an English environment littered with exciting lessons and activities. Through friendly competition, either as a team or individually, all are challenged to succeed.

Teachers are always engaging with students in English inside and out of the classroom. This creates a real desire to use the English language to communicate and get involved, despite being a second or third language to all pupils. By creating a real need on so many different levels the true love of English is developed.

By the end of a Pilgrims course our students have internalised English, valuing it as a language associated with new international friends, exciting activities and lots of laughter. They leave with a love of English because of their love for Pilgrims.

The Programme

Teaching and learning is a human endeavour. There are differences between what works for one person and what works for another. At Pilgrims we understand this diversity and focus on the individual needs of each of our students. Creativity is the key to helping our students reach their aims.

This tailored approach to learning spills into every part of the programme, thus making the entire Pilgrims experience a pedagogic process. The classroom is not the only place where our students learn and practise their English. Our highly imaginative and exceptionally fun activities are a way to explore the English language.

Students choose between a variety of activities such as sport, art, drama and team building exercises. These enjoyable facets of the programme allow students to discover something entirely new while practising and perfecting their language skills. Two full day trips and one half day trip form part of the exciting programme. As students visit cities and explore the English culture, they shape their cosmopolitan identity.
